VOLUNTEER INFORMATION

Make History by volunteering at the World Congress of History Producers - The only international event dedicated to History programming - taking place in London, England November 16-19 2006. Watch and learn from industry professionals! See what it takes to get History programming made!

For more information on this unique event, visit www.history2006.com. To sign up, or to request more information on these exciting volunteer positions, please send an email info@history2006.com

Volunteers will have the opportunity to attend daytime conference sessions (when not helping us with the Congress). They will also receive an official delegate bag (based on available quantities).

The areas where we currently require the most assistance are the Video Tape Library, Registration Desk, Session Rooms and the Delegate Bag Stuffing.

Volunteers' help would be greatly appreciated over the four days in approximately 6-hour shifts with a minimum of 2 shifts over the course of the Congress.
